Mrs. Emma Edick, 86, Former Resident Dies

The following account was taken from the Daytona Beach Evening News of Daytona Beach, Fla.:

"Mrs. Emma Edick, 86, widow of John H. Edick and one of this city's early settlers, died at the family home at 151 South Peninsula, at 8:15 p. m., November 24th.

"Mrs. Edick was a native of Cherry Valley, N. Y. She came to Daytona Beach first in 1890 from Gronson, S. D. She had lived here permanently since 1900.

"Surviving are, one daughter, Mrs. Rena Edick Allen, and a granddaughter, Gladys Patricia Belisario, of the South Peninsula address and a nephew, Allen H. Bleekman, Ormond.

"Funeral for Mrs. Edick was held at the Haigh and Brooks chapel at 3:00 p. m., Nov. 26th, with Rev. Lewis N. Head, pastor of Community Methodist church officiating. Burial was in Pine-wood."

Mrs. Edick was well known by the older generation in this community, who regret hearing of her death.
